The 6821 Quintet consists of international artists coming together to fulfill the understanding that music brings disparate cultures together. The group, lead by virtuoso violinist Mayu Kishima, will be performing various new commissioned works with a theme of spring.

AYANE KOZASA - Appointed Visiting Producer - 4/6 (FRI)

Grand Prize winner of the Primrose International Viola Competition as well as the S&R Foundation Washington Award, violist Ayane Kozasa has captivated audiences around the world. As this season's Appointed Visiting Producer, Ayane will bring together many of her colleagues in presenting a concert of eclectic repertoire.

NICOLAS ALTSTAEDT - 4/24 (TUE)

Captivating the world with his effortless virtuosity, German-French cellist Nicolas Altstaedt is one of the most in demand musicians today. He has soloed with some of the greatest conductors of our time including Gustavo Dudamel and Vladimir Ashkenazy, and will be stopping by Evermay on his long-awaited US tour.

AIZURI QUARTET - 4/28 (SAT)

Winner of the 2017 Osaka International Chamber Music Competition, the Aizuri Quartet brings verve and elegant artistry to the chamber music scene. They are this year's quartet-in-residence at The Metropolitan Museum of New York, and they will make their debut at Evermay this season.

YU KOSUGE - 5/4 (FRI)

Pianist Yu Kosuge has dazzled international audiences with her superlative technique, and her recordings of the Chopin Etudes as well as the complete piano sonatas of Beethoven have garnered much critical acclaim. This season she will be presenting a recital which revolves around the portrayal of water in Classical music.

ACADEMY OF VOCAL ARTS COLLABORATION - 5/18 (FRI)

The world-renown Academy of Vocal Arts in Philadelphia is one of the foremost institutions of opera and voice, where musicians from around the globe come to study at the highly competitive full-scholarship program they offer. The AVA will present some of their extraordinary rising stars in an evening of unforgettable vocal music.

These and other artists will be featured in our 2018 Spring Series!
